Personal Support Worker (Contract)

West Neighbourhood House is a multi-service, neighbourhood-based agency that has served the diverse communities of downtown west Toronto since 1912. The central purpose of West Neighbourhood House is to enable less-advantaged individuals, families and groups in the community to gain greater control over their lives and community.

The Personal Support Worker will ensure that clients are transitioned safely from hospital to home by accompanying clients home from the hospital, assist clients with stopovers along the way and ensure clients are settled-in at home. The Personal Support Worker also accompanies clients to medical appointments, provides in-home personal care and light housekeeping services to seniors and people with disabilities who are frail, vulnerable and/or socially isolated. Individuals may live in the community or in a supportive housing environment.

West Neighbourhood House is actively seeking applications from Indigenous, Black and People of Colour, persons with disabilities, women and persons of all sexual orientations and gender identities/expressions. Applicants with lived experience as a participant of West Neighbourhood House programs, or related programming from similar organizations, are also strongly encouraged to apply.

West Neighbourhood House will provide accommodation throughout the recruitment and selection process to applicants with disabilities. During any stage of the recruitment process, please indicate the nature of any accommodation(s) you may require. Any information received relating to accommodation measures will be addressed confidentially.

Responsibilities:

- Accompany clients home who have been discharged from the hospital;
- Assist client with any stopover requests (e.g. pharmacy, groceries, medical supplies etc.);
- Ensure client is settled-in at home (prepare a light meal, personal care, light housekeeping, discarding expired foods etc.);
- Identify any potential safety issues in the home and document discharge accompaniment accordingly;
- Attend to clients and/or their caregivers by providing support and respite; monitoring the in-home environment, their mental/physical health and their self-care capacity;
- reporting incidents, changes or observations regarding clients' well-being; responding to requests, providing assistance as needed and following up on issues;
- attending to personal emergencies or crises; documenting occurrences and following up with program staff;
- providing hands-on personal care as needed for such activities as bathing, dressing, toileting, grooming/hygiene, preparing meals, adhering to dietary restrictions, and medication reminders;
- assisting clients and/or their caregivers with their light housekeeping tasks such as cleaning (vacuuming, dusting), laundry, shopping, errands (accompanying the client, for example, to the bank and medical appointments);

West Neighbourhood House is an equal opportunity employer. We thank all applicants, but only those candidates to be interviewed will be contacted.
