Policy Statement

West Neighbourhood House is committed to the physical and psychological well-being of its employees, volunteers, participants and student placements.

The Health and Safety Policy sets out organizational expectations with regard to safety standards at work. It works in conjunction with other West Neighbourhood House policies that guide safety at work including, but not limited to the following policies: Respectful Workplace, Workplace Violence, Workplace Harassment, and the Mandatory Use of Mask or Face Shield Policy.

Applicability

- All Staff
- Program Participants, Clients, Members
- Volunteers
- Student Placements

General Principles and Procedures

Management will:

- take whatever action is necessary and reasonably practicable to provide and maintain a safe and healthy work environment.
- comply with all legislative requirements and provide all necessary training.
- strive to eliminate those foreseeable hazards to the extent reasonably practicable, which may cause personal injuries or illness.
- promote practices that address physical and psychological well-being in the workplace.

Supervisors will:

- ensure that employees work in a safe manner and with the protective devices, measures and procedures required by the Occupational Health and Safety Act and its regulations.
- ensure that employees follow appropriate safety procedures.
- immediately communicate to employees should they be aware of any potential or actual hazards (physical and psychological) to health and safety. In this circumstance, supervisors must take every reasonably practicable precaution for the protection of employees, volunteers and participants.

All Employees (including supervisors) will:

- have knowledge of their actual working conditions and have an obligation to report any safety hazards (physical and psychological) or possible contraventions of the Occupational Health and Safety Act and its regulations of which they are aware to their immediate supervisor, so that any safety hazards or contraventions can be remedied.
- have an obligation to use or wear the equipment, protective devices or clothing that West Neighbourhood House requires to be used or worn.

The Health and Safety Committee will:

- promote an awareness of health and safety issues and ensure that everything reasonably practicable is done to establish an accident and injury free environment.
- establish and maintain programs to identify and appropriately control workplace hazards (physical and psychological)
- provide appropriate tools and equipment for employees; and provide suitable training to employees concerning all aspects of workplace health and safety.

All employees of West Neighbourhood House must accept their responsibility concerning the provision of a safe work environment. Everyone must be committed to the objective of reducing risk of physical and psychological injuries and illnesses. Employees who fail to meet their obligations concerning health and safety or violate safety rules may face discipline, including termination of employment.
